What is the most frustrating thing about the platform/s you use for group work / study?
That sometimes the formatting can change when saving the files onto your computer and opening with Microsoft office not all students have Facebook Having to scroll back through group messages to find attachments Doesn't provide anything other than file sharing/messaging.
Google Docs reformatting the document when u download it nothing is really too frustrating about it Maybe that you can delete anyone's work
Not able to draw out concepts Sometimes notifications don't work
Nothing comes to mind Can't really say lack of file sharing and collaboration on facebook, forced to use several platforms like google drive as well Having to use a 3rd party such as google drive to edit files instead of having it built into the instant messenger.
uploading and sharing documents File sharing and editing.
can only upload one file at a time minimal market share reduces popularity; everyone chooses facebook crashes

Is there any feature that you wish it had?
The same capabilities as Microsoft office less ads and not having a limit on the number of photos you can send in one message Search through attached files in a group message to stop having to scroll back through Real time file editing (like google documents)
Not really no, facebook pretty much covers everything Saved copies of previous versions
A chat option
Maybe screen sharing?
Automatically set up facebook messenger groups for teams
No collaborative file editor like word sort file uploads by user.
google drive features Live video chat.
Larger upload capacity and potentially group video conversations Meet people in your area better conversion to word
